New Employee Biographs

I would like to introduce myself as one of Central Soya's newer tellers. My name is Malori Reed, I am a mother to a wild but sweet little boy. My prior job experience was in health care and as you can imagine this is a big career change, but I can truly say this was the best change for me and my son. I'm looking forward to many years here serving our members.

Hello, my name is Alyssa Prater I would like to introduce myself as one of Central Soya's newest tellers! I graduated from Adams Central High School and have been a member of the Credit Union for some time now. Some of my favorite things to do is go thrift shopping, take long walks when it's nice outside, and hanging out with my friends and family. I'm really enjoying working here and getting to know everyone!

Central Soya Federal Credit Union Privacy Notice

Central Soya Federal Credit Union, your member owned financial institution, is committed to providing you financial products and services to meet your needs and reach your financial goals. We are equally committed to protecting our members' privacy. You can be confident that your financial privacy is a priority of this credit union. We are required by law to give you this privacy notice to explain how we collect, use and safeguard your personal financial information. If you have any questions, please contact the office.

Information We Collect and Disclose About You

We collect nonpublic information about you from the following sources:

- Information we receive from you on applications and other forms;
- Information about your transactions with us or others;
- Information we receive from a consumer reporting agency, such as the credit bureau
- Information obtained when verifying the information you provide on an application or other forms. This may be obtained from your current or past employers, or from other institutions where you conduct financial transactions.

We may disclose all the information we collect, as described above, to companies that perform marketing services on our behalf or to other financial institutions with whom we have joint marketing agreements. To protect our members' privacy, we only work with companies that agree to maintain strong confidentiality protections and limit the use of information we provide. We do not permit these companies to sell the member information we provide to other third parties.

In order to conduct the business of the credit union, we may also disclose nonpublic personal information about you under other circumstances as permitted or required by law. These disclosures typically include information to process transactions on your behalf, conduct the operations of our credit union, follow your instructions as you authorize, or protect the security of our financial records.

If you terminate your membership with Central Soya Federal Credit Union, we will not share information we have collected about you, except as permitted or required by law.
